

USC Institute for Global Health, USC Office of Religious Life, USC Caruso Catholic Center, USC Center for Religion & Civic Culture, USC Hillel, Jewish World Watch, and USC Spectrum present

a conversation with

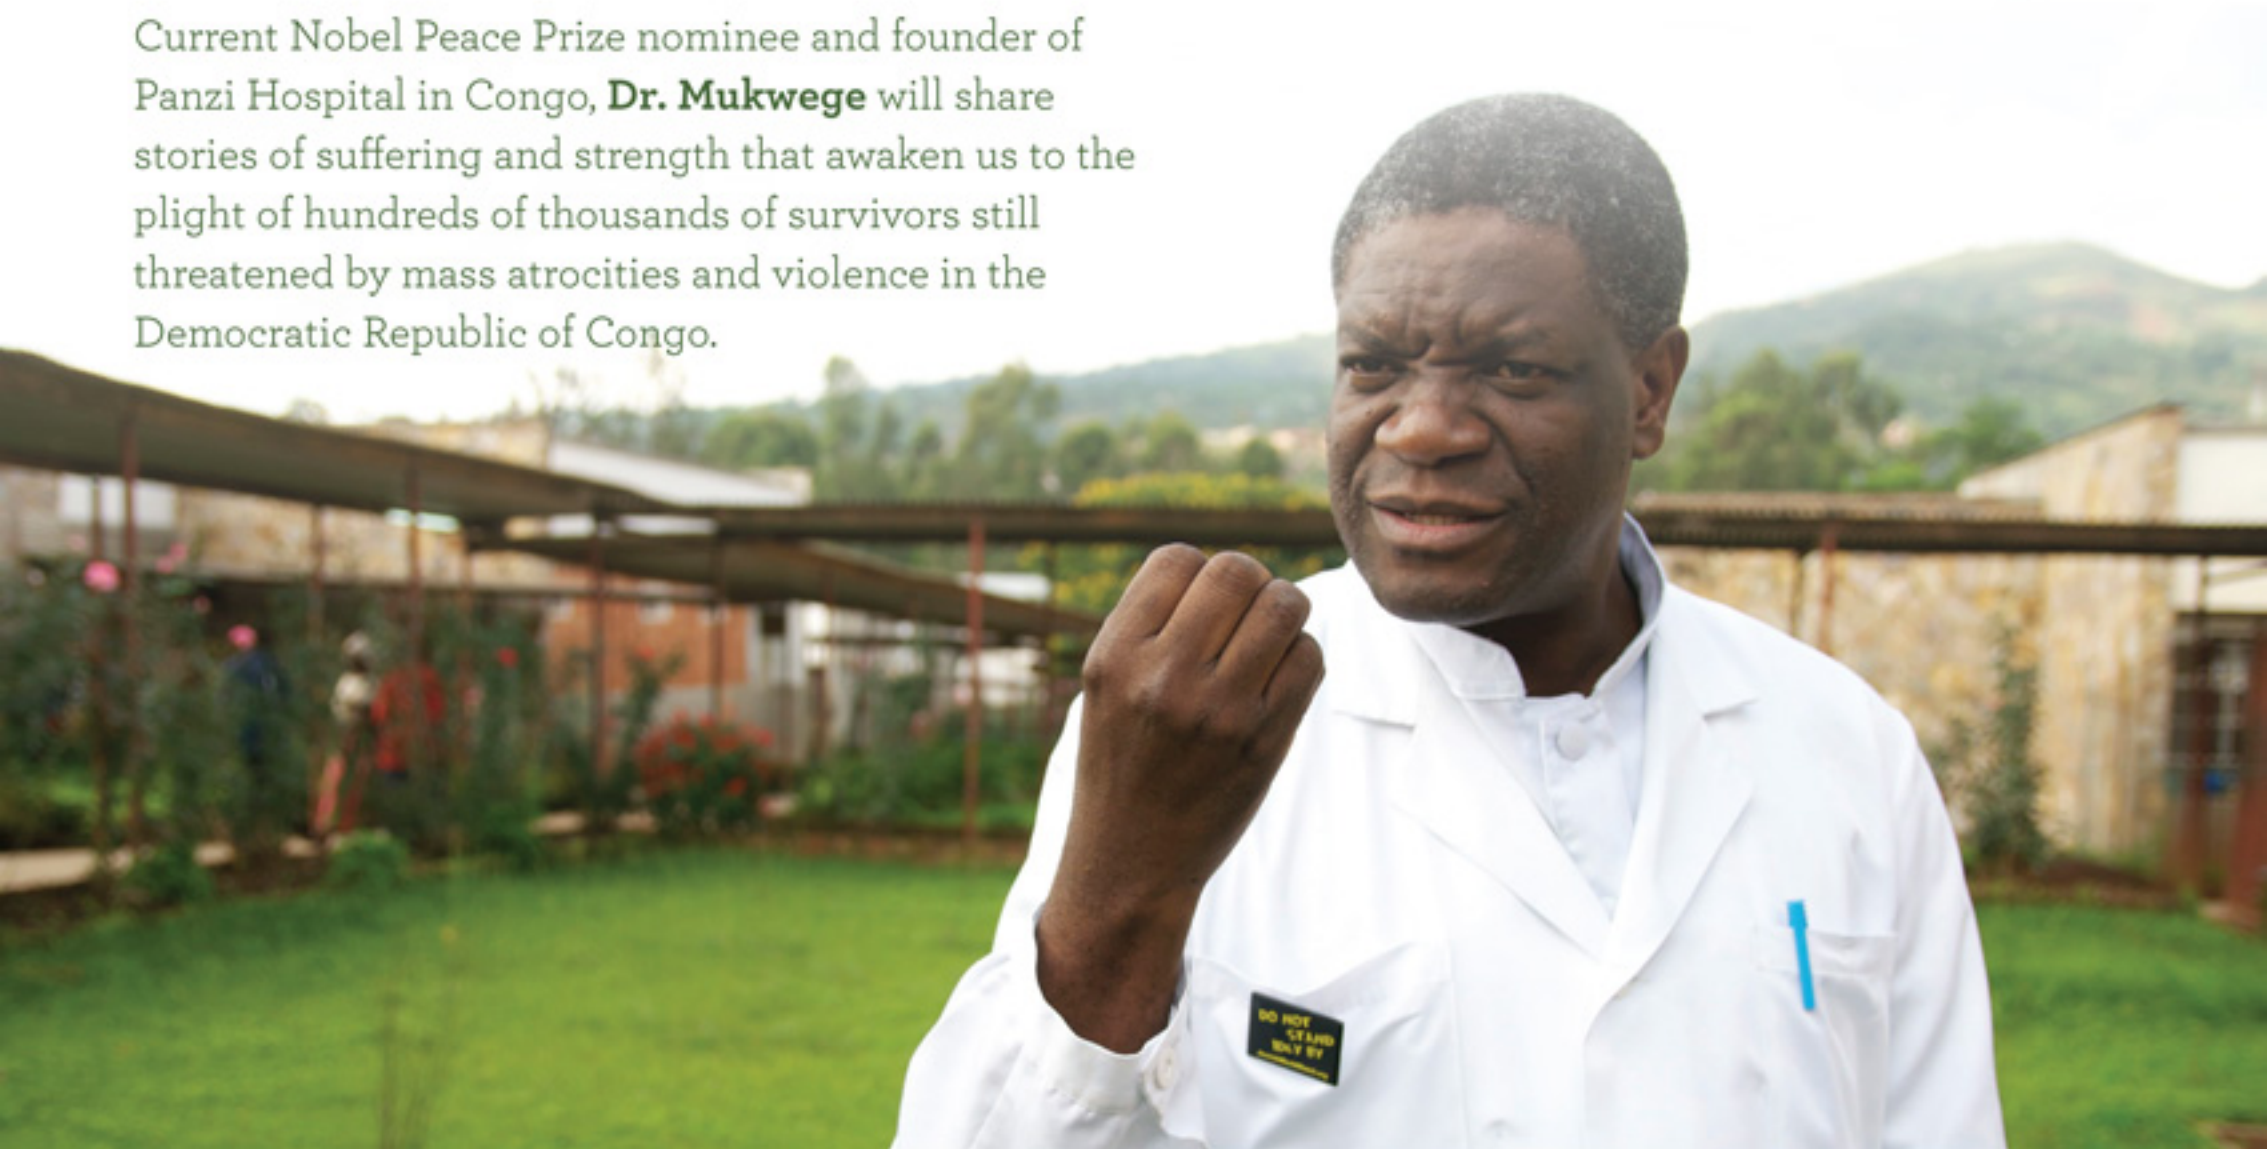

DR. DENIS

MUKWEGE

Moderated by Janice Kamenir-Reznik, USC alumna and co-founder of Current Nobel Peace Prize nominee and founder of Panzi Hospital in Congo, Dr. Mukwege will share stories of suffering and strength that awaken us to the plight of hundreds of thousands of survivors still threatened by mass atrocities and violence in the Democratic Republic of Congo.

Light refreshments will be served prior to the event at the USC Caruso Catholic Center at 3 pm.

October 7, 2013 | 4 pm | USC Caruso Catholic Center

free with RSVP at www.usc.edu/spectrum

USC School Co-Sponsors: USC Gould School of Law, USC School of Social Work and USC Dornsife College of Letters, Arts & Sciences

USC Departmental/Program Co-Sponsors: Engemann Student Health Center, USC Annenberg Center on Communication Leadership & Policy, USC Casden Institute for the Study of the Jewish Role in American Life, USC Center for International Studies, USC Dornsife 2020 Research Cluster "Resisting the Path to Genocides", USC Political Science Department and HUC-JIR's Louchheim School for Judaic Studies at USC

Student Organization Co-Sponsors: USC Black Student Assembly, JWW's Rabbi Harold M. Schulweis University Fellowship at USC, USC Hillel Campus Entrepreneurs Initiative and USC Undergraduate Student Government

Community Co-Sponsors: International Medical Corps, Enough Project, USC Jewish Alumni Association, American Jewish Committee and American Jewish World Service