

Using Civic Imagination to Resist: Envisioning A Future With Sexual and Reproductive Rights

Wed., April 18th, 2018

12 p.m. – 4 p.m.

USC Gould School of Law

Faculty Lounge

Room 433

USC University Park Campus

The USC Law & Global Health Collaboration is excited to partner with the Civics and Social Media Group (CASM) and the Civic Imagination Project (CIP) to bring students and faculty together to brainstorm the world we want for the future.

Join us as we surface not only our concerns but identify research and action to make progress beyond the Trump era!

Global(HEALTH+LAW)

The USC Law and Global Health Collaboration advances scholarship and provides monthly lectures and public discussions at the intersection of law and global health. Supported by the USC Research Collaboration Fund, Professor Sofia Gruskin, director of the Program on Global Health & Human Rights, leads this collaboration alongside USC Gould Professor of Law and Medicine Alexander Capron and USC Research Professor and Associate Dean of Research Charles Kaplan from the Suzanne Dworak-Peck School of Social Work.
